In continuation of my confidential report No.43 dated 15-12-24 I beg to report that the R.T.Company gave the benefit performance in aid of the local Congress volunteer funds. The amount collected was only Rs.124/-. The proprietor of the Company expressed his regret to pay any some as the income was much less than his actual expenses of the play for the night i.e. Rs.175/-.

I beg to append a copy of a cutting from the "Hindu" of the 15th instant about the donations made by the Mysore State people towards the Belgaum Congress Exhibition Fund which is published under the authority of Mr. K. Shamanna, Secretary, Mysore State Congress Committee, Sultanpet, Bangalore City, which shows that nearly Rs.10,000/- have been subscribed.

Bangalore collections.

Mr. K. Shamanna, Secretary, Mysore State Congress Committee, Sultanpet, Bangalore City, writes under date December 11.

The following is a summary of collections made in Bangalore by this office and of amounts received from moffussil places:-

Districts. Bangalore, Rs.2,286/-, Tumkur Rs.250/-, Hassan Rs.183-12-0, Kadur Rs.125/-, Chitaldrug Rs.125/-, Total Rs.2,969-12-0.

Collections from moffussil places have been mostly remitted direct to Reception Committee, Belgaum. The sum total of remittances from all the Districts in the State is estimated to be nearly Rs.10,000/-. The best collections have been made in Shimoga District which we learn has remitted over Rs.4,000/-. It will be seen that Kolar District is no where. Mysore District has sent about Rs.1000/-. It is earnestly hoped that those gentleman who have promised to pay and to collect funds in the several Districts of the State will spare no pains during the short time before us

It is also hoped that philanthropic gentlemen in Bangalore will no longer stand aloof but will send their contributions to the Karnataka Industrial Exhibition Fund or to the Congress Fund to the undersigned without delay.
